Applications are invited for Ambedkar Summer School, 2022 to be organised by Indian Institute of Dalit Studies in collaboration with Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung, South Asia during May, 2022. Ambedkar Summer School, a week-long residential programme aims to develop the capacity of youths from the marginalized social groups through reading/writing and dialogue for analysis of issue related to public policy in practice and experiences for marginalized social groups. The summer school programme also aims to improve the critical understanding of youth in analysis of public policies for marginalised communities.

How to apply

The research scholars and youth activists working on the issues of marginalization and exclusion can apply for Ambedkar Summer School. The interested applicants need to send their detailed bio data along with abstract (around 1000 words) on the Public Policy and Marginalized Social Groups. After summer school, the selected participants will develop their abstract in the forms of academic articles which would be published in the forms of edited books or get published as original article in academic journal. Our mentorship programme will help the participants in improving their article.

The organisers will bear the cost of travel (Train AC Three tier), boarding and lodging during the programme.

Application should be send by email to the programme convenor (ambedkarschooliidsrsls@gmail.com).

Mentorship of participants of Ambedkar Summer School

Ambedkar Summer School also offers mentorship programme for the participants. The mentorship initiatives enable continuous engagements with the participants and help to remove barriers experienced by them in their research. The mentorship panel consists of eminent academicians working on the issues of exclusion and discrimination etc.
